IOSH Working Safely Training Course

The Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 puts a responsibility onto employers to ensure the health, safety and welfare of their employees at work and of any other persons who use the premises. This course aims to assist both employers to work more safely and to contribute to the overall safety of an organisation.

Objectives:

Working Safely trains workers to ensure that their actions contribute to health & safety in the workplace, and that individual responsibilities are clearly understood.

Each delegate receives a copy of the book Essentials of Health & Safety at Work and they each receive a certificate of competence upon successful completion of the course assessments.

Course Agenda:

Five interactive modules:

- Introducing working safely
- Defining hazard and risk
- Identifying common hazards
- Improving safety performance
- Protecting our environment

End of course assessments:

- A 10 question, multiple-choice assessment paper (15 mins)
- Three hazard spotting exercises (15 mins)

Course Duration:

1 Day

Certification:

When you pass, you'll be awarded an IOSH Working safely certificate.

Training available across the UK at your premises one of our Training Centres
